

George Washington said, “the sacred rights of mankind are not to be rummaged from among old parchments or musty records. They are written, as with a sunbeam, in the whole volume of human nature, by the hand of Divinity itself, and can never be erased or obscured by mortal power.”

Therefore, we as a lawful body of believers in the power and authority of God Almighty do declare and proclaim the following:

Michigan General Jural Assembly Vision Statement

As stated in The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America in CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness._____ That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, ____ That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.
